Boston, June 26, 1929

Tercentenary Celebration at Lynn, Massachusetts

1. The Nobles of the Arab Patrol, Mounted Patrol and Degree Staff will report at 135 Huntington Avenue, Mechanics Building, on Wednesday, July 3, at 12:30 o'clock, P.M. in civilian dress to take busses for Lynn, Massachusetts, where the uniformed units will take part in the Tercentenary parade.

The uniforms will be transported by separate conveyance and the cases available on the arrival of the several units at Pythian Castle, rear of Market Street, which will be the headquarters for the day.

A parking space for those who come in their own cars will be provided on Tremont Street near Pythian Castle, in the space marked 'Reserved for Shriners'.

2. It is the desire of the Potentate that every uniformed Noble be present as this is an opportunity to make a creditable showing for the Temple on an occasion when many military and fraternal organizations will participate. Several prizes are offered for the organizations making the best appearance, and in this award Aleppo Temple will be accorded a chance to compete with the local organizations of the City of Lynn.

This parade will therefor be regarded as a tour of duty and the attendance or absence of each individual recorded.

3. Bill of dress: Full dress uniform, soft white shirt and collar, black shoes and FEZ.

By order of
MAJOR BOLTON
Marshal for the parade

R. D. LIVINGSTON,
Adjutant.

Approved:
SAM'L C. L. HASKELL,
Potentate.
